

CCS Enterprise Order Entry via PDA

Sales order collection on site. Turn your CCS Enterprise system into an efficient income module. Help your salespersons to take sales order items and synchronize with your back end system to generate invoices and delivery orders.

Features

- Up to 50,000 item master and thousands of customers address and reference information loaded into the PDA
- Order taking function include feature like discount and free gifts as working hand in hand with back-end sales order system
- On-line credit limit control
- Fast USB data download within minutes
- Effective date control for both customers price and standard selling price
- Automatic generation of invoices after order approval
- Save up to thousands of hours everyday
- Remote data collection supported
- Simple to use PDA program design suitable for all types of sales personnel
- PDA screen allow modification and review order information
- Program written in generic Palm OS and is tested on all models of PDAs
- Suitable for distribution companies like drugs, domestic products, food etc.

@Zire is the trademark of Palm Inc.