

CCS Enterprise Pharmaceutical Pro

Communication

CCS Enterprise Pharmaceutical Pro is specially designed for drug and health product business.

Monitoring

The pharmaceutical or medical related product business requires batch numbers printed on each item in the invoice so that the administration can then refer to stock expiry and stock tracing as when it was delivered and sold. More importantly stock return can be traced and credited with the CCS Enterprise accounting modules automatically. The automated data flow will save hundred of hours of administration work over the years.

Corporate Performance

The superior multi-currencies capability of CCS Enterprise enables multi-currencies purchase and local and overseas sales trace currency exchange gain or loss.

Special poison reports or quantity declaration are available with the stock inventory and cost of goods for accurate business and administration management.

Sales Performance

CCS Enterprise Pharmaceutical Pro is integrated with the CCS Sales Analysis for products, brand and customers profit margin. Report formats are in graphical, vertical analysis and horizontal analysis.

For corporate accounting, brands, customers or sales transactions are automatically updated to the general ledger for product, brands, customers financial performance.

Project Control

CCS Enterprise pharmaceutical inventory control, sales order, purchasing, accounts receivable, accounts payable are integrated and configurable to perform either division accounting or product accounting for timely management decision.

The complete CCS Enterprise Pharmaceutical Pro is developed in 32-bit database Windows system with the highest product quality assurance

Inventory

Administration